Speaker:

Dr. Kalyan Kumar Das,

Assistant Professor of English, Presidency University.

Total No. of Students Participated: 115

Convener: Mr. Animesh Bag (SC/ST/Minority Cell)

Objective:

The SC/ST/Minority Cell of K. K. Das College is working actively to ensure education and equal opportunity for the all sections of the society especially the weaker section. It is very important for all to know the history of India, their culture and all the societal perils as well. This year like every year the cell organized a special talk for the students. Dr. Kalyan Kumar Das who is an Assistant Professor of English, Presidency University, West Bengal was the esteemed invited speaker. His talk entitled as "আবেদকর ও কার্ল মার্কস: রাজনীতি, সংস্কৃতি এবং দর্শনের প্রেক্ষিতে একটি পাঠ" was highly received. Dr. Das has been working extensively for a long period on caste. His erudite lecture including the political, economic and philosophical dimension of the idea of caste and the position of Dr. Ambedkar was highly beneficial for the students. Not only teaching faculty and students of K. K. Das College, teaching fraternity of other colleges, research scholars across the state had also participated in the event. There were 115 students including other colleges, 17 faculty members and 10 research scholars attended the event. Animesh Bag, Assistant Professor, Department of English and the convenor of the The SC/ST/Minority Cell hosted the programme. Honourable Principal of K. K. Das College, Dr. Ramkrishna Prasad Chakraborty formally welcomed the speaker and initiated the programme. Our I. Q. A. C. coordinator and Assistant Professor of English, K.K Das College supported the event and extended vote of thanks in the end. The programme happened virtually on Google meet and live stream on Youtube.
