Description:

K.K.Das College celebrated its 58th foundation day on 5th September, 2021. The programme commenced at 10 am in an online platform with an inaugural song sung by Dr. Anjana Brahma, convenor of the programme followed by a welcome address by the Principal Dr. Ramkrishna Prasad Chakraborty. In his talk, he discussed the evolving trends in the economy and society which the pandemic has brought about. He focussed on how K.K.Das College adapted itself to the changing trends in education and espoused the technology driven teaching learning process. He applauded both the students and teachers for their constant support. He also briefed on the wide variety of activities, both online and offline, that can be conducted by the college in the following year. He expressed how the college stands out with a vision, vigor and value of a new kind. He also talked about the different programmes that can be conducted by the college in each semester, which will enhance the students' career-capability and make them aware of the current and evolving trends in their subjects.

The welcome address was followed by the Foundation Day Lecture by Prof. Soma Mukhopadhyay, the senior most faculty of the college. In her speech she shared her experiences of how the college evolved from an evening commerce college to a full-fledged multi-faculty institute. Prof. Sukumar Sadhukhan, the Secretary of the Teachers' Council, discussed the role of students to develop a better teaching-learning environment in the college. He also encouraged the students to take the opportunities given by the college and excel both academically and professionally in future. The programme was then presided over by Prof Bapi Sardar, Prof. Bidya Ratan Tikader and Prof. Anunoy Chatterjee with their lecturers. The programme concluded by Dr. Nasima Munshi, IQAC Coordinator, with songs performed by Prof. Putul Chakraborty and Prof. Deblina Biswas.
